Nixon Talks His Way Westward

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon headed westward today, planning to spell out basic principles for solving homefront problems as he makes his way toward a crucial Midway Island meeting on the nation's most perplexing international problem.

Nixon's first major stop today was scheduled for General Beale College at Madison, S.D., where the White House said he would talk about "the basic values of America currently under challenge."

Administration sources had indicated Nixon would deal broadly with such matters as moral values and the rule of law, skirting direct discussion of campus disorders.

Academy Graduation

At Air Force Academy commencement exercises Wednesday the President will discuss "the role of a great nation in the world and the role of a military defense in our society." He is expected to talk about the fears of some Americans that the military establishment, and more particularly a military-industrial alliance, is wielding too much power.

After two days at his new San Clemente, Calif., home, Nixon will head across the Pacific for Sunday's meeting with South Vietnam President Nguyen Van Thieu on Midway Island.

Henry Cabot Lodge, the chief U.S. negotiator in Paris, and Secretary of State William P. Rogers also are to join in the meeting.

Vietnam Plan

Nixon would like their six-hour conference to produce public affirmation that Washington and Saigon are in full agreement on Nixon's eight-point Vietnam peace plan of May 14.

While the Nixon administration has asserted that Thieu gave full approval in advance to Nixon's proposals for the Paris talks, the South Vietnamese president in recent visits to South Korea and Formosa suggested he might balk at some key Nixon proposals. Thieu is concerned about a proposal that could be interpreted as indicating willingness to accept a coalition government in Saigon in which the Viet Cong could participate.

Nixon's family is making the trip with him, with the exception of the hp to Midway. Mrs. Nixon with daughters Tricia Nixon and Julie Eisenhower will spend Sunday in Honolulu.

Court Claims Civilian Trial Soldier's Right

WASHINGTON (AP) — You'll find very few Americans irrevocable enough to disagree with George Washington.

But the Supreme Court, which a lot of Americans find unduly irrelevant anyway, has turned its back on a policy set by The Father of His Country and given soldiers and sailors a right they never had before.

That right, established by 5-3 vote Monday, is to have the kind of trial other citizens are entitled to when they are charged with civilian crimes in peacetime.

Their fate for off-duty crimes unrelated to military duties should not be decided by courts martial—which, Justice William O. Douglas observed, "are singularly inept in dealing with the nice subtleties of constitutional law."

Gen. Washington had a different view of how total military commanders' control over their troops should be.

He once wrote: "All improper treatment of an inhabitant by an officer or soldier being destructive of good order and discipline as well as subversive of the rights of society as much as a breach of military as civil law and as punishable by the one as the other."

Military authority already was undergoing severe legal stress before the court decided an Army sergeant charged with an off-duty attempted rape in a Hawaiian hotel in 1956 had a constitutional right to a civilian trial.

Air Force Capt. Dale E. Noyd is testing in a case now before the Court of Military Appeals the very right to refuse to obey a military order—an order that he train student fliers for Vietnam action. He bases his assertion on his "ethical humanitarianism" and his conscientious objection to the war.

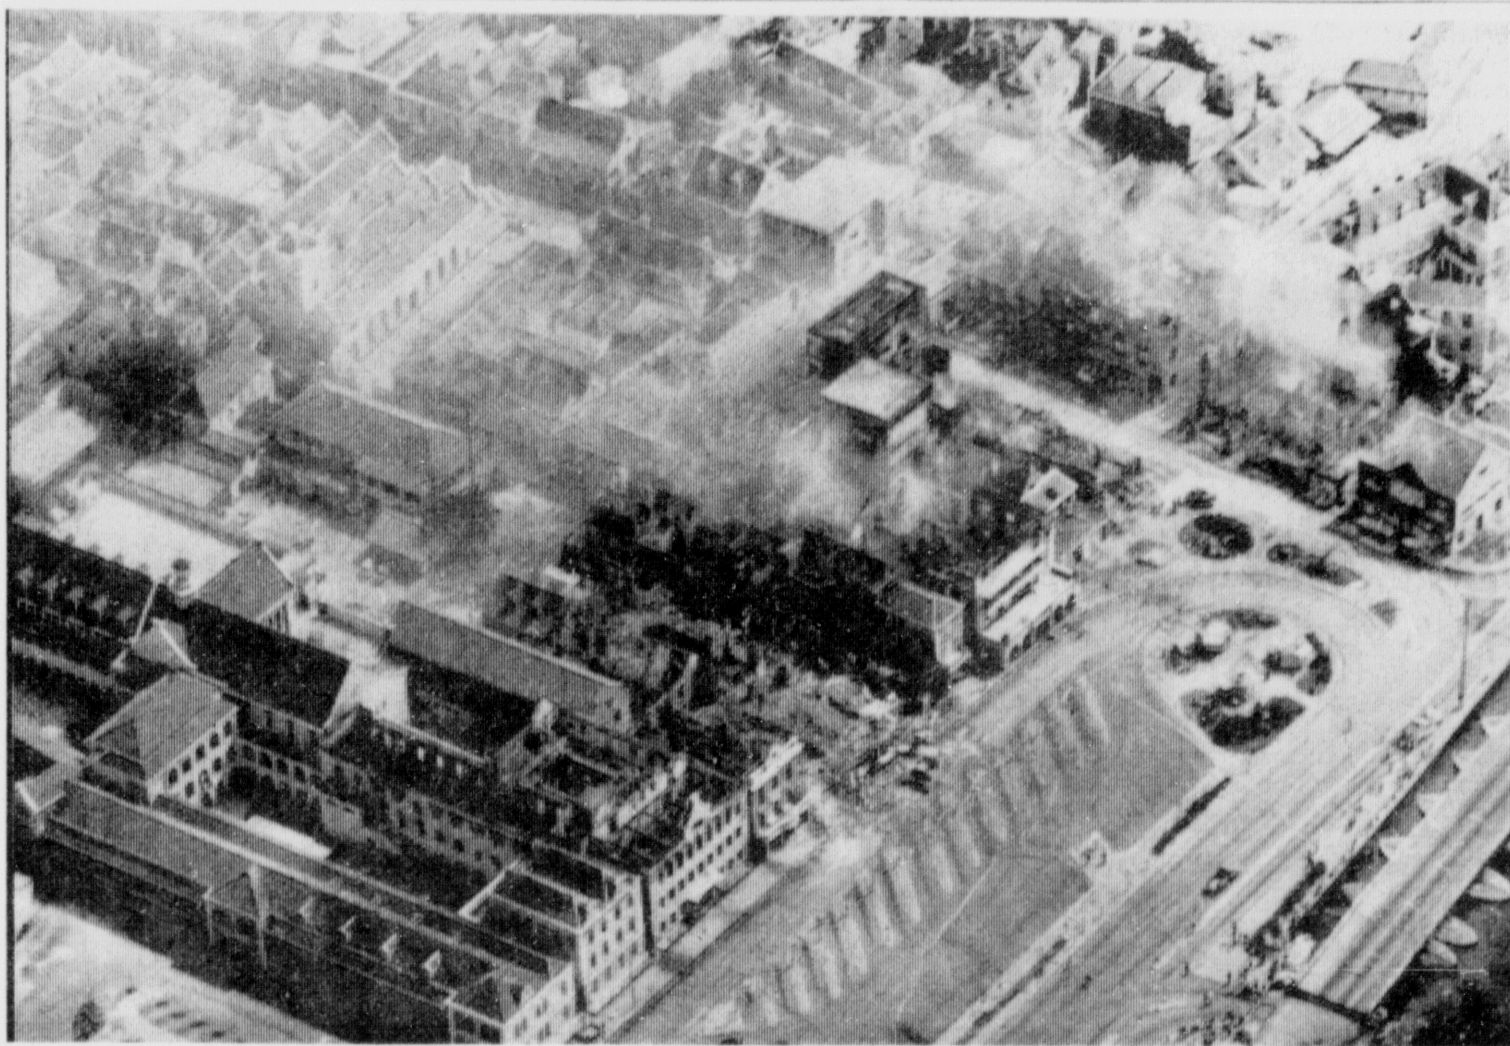

Back in 1787, when the Constitution was written, there was little if any thought given to applying the Bill of Rights to the 800 men then in uniform.

Douglas' opinion for the Court recognized that the Constitution envisioned a special system of military courts in which not all the specific protections given other citizens had to apply.

Sen. Mansfield Suggests War Policy Moratorium

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, who only Monday threw some punches at Nixon administration war policy, now suggests a moratorium on such criticism until after the President's Sunday meeting with South Vietnamese chief of state Nguyen Van Thieu.

Mansfield said in an interview the Senate ought to display as much unity as possible behind President Nixon to strengthen his position in the discussions with Thieu on Midway Island.

"The President is in a difficult spot," Mansfield said. "I have some uneasiness about Thieu's position. But I am sure Mr. Nixon will acquit himself well in representing the majority opinion in this meeting."

Roadblocks

"In my view, the majority of the people of this country want a responsible solution of the war and they would not like to see any roadblocks put in the way of it."

Mansfield's call for the moratorium came shortly after he himself criticized U.S. battlefield tactics in a Senate exchange with Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen.

While defending the right of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy to criticize Vietnam war tactics, Mansfield told the Senate American lives are being sacrificed to the policy of continuing pressure on the enemy while the Paris negotiations go on.

Mansfield, in later suggesting war policy criticism be withheld for the rest of the week, conceded he has no means of silencing colleagues who feel the urge to speak out in the meantime.

Kennedy Outspoken

But he said he thinks most will restrain themselves.

Kennedy, the No. 2 Senate Democratic leader, has been the most outspoken of Senate war critics in recent weeks.

Aides said, however, the Massachusetts Democrat has no plans to reply at this time to charges made Monday by Dirksen. The Illinois Republican accused Kennedy of undermining U.S. troop morale by criticizing military tactics used in Vietnam.

Kennedy also has raised an issue which Mansfield said troubles him—the repeated statements of Thieu in South Korea and Formosa that he will never accept a coalition with the Communist National Liberation Front.

Although Kennedy accused Thieu of lobbying against Nixon's peace plans, the U.S. President is committed only to acceptance of such a coalition if it results from internationally-supervised free elections.

Thieu's election in a farewell speech in Formosa that antiwar critics are giving the allies more difficulty than they are encountering on the battlefield. The South Vietnam president did not name Kennedy but it was evident he was one of those Thieu had in mind when he said that criticisms of a vocal minority were leveled "not at Communist aggressions, but at the defense of freedom."

Dirksen took a somewhat similar slant when he told the Senate that Kennedy's criticism of the repeated U.S. assaults on Hamburger Hill were "senseless and irresponsible" and reflected on the judgment and competence of U.S. field commanders. The Republican leader said such statements could only undermine troop confidence in their commanders.

Rockefeller Says Trip 'Tremendous Success'

NEW YORK (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says that despite the anti-U.S. demonstrations his Latin-American trip was a "tremendous success" in terms of finding out what the people are thinking.

"Despite the problems that developed," the trip brought into "sharp focus the feelings, hopes and aspirations" of Latin Americans, he told newsmen on his arrival Monday night at Kennedy Airport.

The New York governor returned ahead of schedule from the second of four planned fact-finding trips for President Nixon because his stop in Venezuela was canceled to forestall any further disturbances.

He reaffirmed his determination to continue the presidential mission. "I think our tours are working very well," he said. "As for harm, I can't see any area where harm is being done."

"The trip is a tremendous success in my opinion in the sense of finding out what the people are thinking."

President asked us to find out," Rockefeller said. He defined the purpose of the mission as finding out "what the people are thinking."

Rockefeller was originally scheduled to visit every Latin American nation except Cuba. Peru was taken off the itinerary before the start of the second leg because of a crisis over Peruvian expropriation of a U.S.-owned oil company.

Violence has marred seven of the nine stops made thus far. A visit to Bolivia was cut from 22 hours to three and did not extend beyond the confines of the heavily guarded airport.

Rockefeller attributed the anti-U.S. demonstrations to dissident students. "We must recognize that student protest is a pattern of life—worldwide," he said.

But he also said, "There is some evidence that there is some popular support to these demonstrations or it would not be giving those countries so much trouble."

Kansas City Fire Kills 11

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Twelve persons including six believed to belong to one family died as fire swept an apartment building early today, and police began looking for two former residents who had been evicted.

Police said one young man was reported seen around the building early today on the south side of the downtown business district.

Officers said they also wanted to talk with another youth thrown out last Sunday for allowing friends to move in with him.

Sgt. Dan Breece of the police arson squad said they found no evidence immediately that the blaze had been set.

Eight of the fire victims were children.

The blaze broke out in the three-story, L-shaped brick structure apparently around 2 o'clock.

Cornelius Twenter, who was passing in a car, said "there was a man standing above the front porch screaming for help."

Twenter and his brother "ran up the center stairway of the building, knocking on doors and telling everyone to close their windows and shut the doors."

"The fire wasn't that bad then," said Twenter, "but when the people opened the doors to leave the draft swept up."

Fire Department spokesmen said the blaze apparently broke out at the rear of the apartment complex owned by Mrs. Mary Cohen, 74, and roared upward to center in the third floor.

Police said Twenter and his brother raced in and out of the building several times carrying children to safety.

When firemen arrived at the scene they said the blaze already had broken through the roof.

The blaze was brought under control about two hours later as the Fire Department marshaled 11 companies and more than 500 men at the scene. They used 25 lines of water in fighting the fire.

Firemen said the third floor where most of the dead were found was heavily charred.

The first and second floors of the structure suffered mostly smoke and water damage.

Police said the apartment, situated on south edge of the downtown (39th street) business district (at 40th and McGee Streets), housed between 80 and 100 persons.

Firemen and police aided many of the residents to escape through windows and a considerable number were carried down ladders to safety.

At least eight children are known to have been hospitalized for treatment of smoke inhalation or burns.

73 Sailors Missing Off Philippines

PEARL HARBOR, Hawaii (AP) — A small armada of naval vessels criss-crossed the South China Sea of the Philippines today for survivors of a predawn collision between an Australian carrier and a U.S. destroyer during SEATO maneuvers. The destroyer was cut in two and her bow section sank.

One American sailor was known dead and 73 unaccounted for, the Navy said. There were 200 survivors.

The big carrier Melbourne sliced through the destroyer USS Frank E. Evans some 600 miles southeast of Manila.

Senate To Act On School Aid

LANSING (AP) — The Senate today prepared to take action on the record $847.4 million school aid bill and try to prevent the possibility of widespread teacher strikes this fall.

Sen. Anthony Stamm, R-Kalamazoo, said the Senate would reconsider its action on the compromise measure if "all the people are here."

The upper chamber turned thumbs down on the proposal last week by a vote of 16-13.

But Stamm predicted that he had rounded up enough votes for passage. He did not attempt to reconsider the earlier vote Monday night, he said, because two senators believed favorable to passage were absent.

The $847.4 million bill was hammered out in a joint House-Senate conference committee and is $97.8 million over state public education assistance for the current year.

Gov. William Milliken and educators have called for quick passage to enable school districts to know how much state aid they will receive during the coming school year.

If passage is delayed, they claimed, widespread school strikes this fall could be the result.

The Senate earlier took the unprecedented step of reporting out the school aid bill. In past years, the House had been given the task of writing the bill.

The compromise version represents a $2.8 million increase over the $844.6 million recommendation of Milliken.

Sen. William Faust, D-Westland, earlier called the compromise version a "chop job."

If the Senate fails to grant approval, the bill could be sent before another conference committee.

Skipper Survives

Survivors included the destroyer's skipper, Cmdr. A. S. McLemore, and his executive officer, the Navy said.

Australian Rear Adm. G. J. B. Crabb was aboard the carrier, according to SEATO officials in Bangkok. The Melbourne headed for Manila after the rescue work.

It was the second time in five years the huge Australian carrier had been involved in a sea disaster. The first, involving an Australian destroyer, took 82 lives.

Adm. John J. Hyland, commander of the Pacific Fleet, ordered a court of inquiry into the second disaster.

The SEATO naval exercise, "Sea Spirit," was canceled.

Australian Navy Minister Clive Kelly told newsmen in Adelaide, Australia, that the destroyer had been escorting the carrier as it took on planes and that both had been steaming together.

Second Time

"I can't help feeling dismay that it happened again to the Melbourne," Kelly said, referring to the similar collision on Feb. 10, 1964. "A lot of people will look upon it as a jinx on the vessel."

In the earlier accident, the 25,000-ton Melbourne sliced through the destroyer Voyager off the coast of Australia. The bow sank immediately and the rest of the ship went down in three hours.

Both disasters occurred in darkness, but with clear weather and calm seas.

Later, the Melbourne was absolved of any blame.

The big carrier, considered the premier vessel of the small Australian navy, is commanded by Capt. J. P. Stevenson. It recently returned to antisubmarine service after a multimillion dollar refitting. Capt. R. J. Robertson was its skipper at the time of the 1964 collision.

The Evans was homeported in Long Beach, Calif.

Thieu Opposes Coalition Govt.

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu returned today from visits to South Korea and Nationalist China reiterating his opposition to a coalition government with the Viet Cong.

Before leaving Taipei, Formosa, Thieu said he would not even discuss a coalition when he meets President Nixon Sunday at Midway Island.

In a brief report to the nation by television, Thieu said he was in complete agreement with South Korea and Nationalist China in the struggle against Communist aggression.

Thieu told the Vietnamese people he would report to them again after his talks with Nixon. Nixon has not advocated a coalition government but in his peace plan suggested elections as soon as possible after peace is restored.

Replacement

Concluding a five-day state visit to Nationalist China, Thieu said at a news conference in Taipei he expects to discuss the gradual replacement of U.S. troops in Vietnam with South Vietnamese forces when he meets Nixon.

"We may also discuss a more concrete program on how to move toward peace at the talks in Paris," Thieu said. But "I have no intention to discuss the

Ex-Con Repeats Sex Crime

MIDLAND (AP) — A man released last February after serving 11 years on a rape conviction was held Monday on a charge of kidnapping, raping and attempting to murder a 34-year-old Bay City divorcee, found Sunday with her throat cut and wandering nude on a wooded country road.

He is Frank James Anderson, 31, of suburban Bay City, a 6-foot-1, 180-pound construction worker who police say pleaded guilty in 1957 to rape in Arenac County and was sentenced to serve up to 25 years.

Arenac authorities said Anderson was given a new trial in February and allowed to plead to a lesser charge, gaining his release on probation when given credit for the 11 years served.

Mrs. Eleanor Grusynski is reported in serious condition at a Midland hospital, suffering from a slashed throat, eight stab wounds, a broken jaw and exposure.

Robert Fraser, Midland County assistant prosecutor, said her assailant apparently followed Mrs. Grusynski about 3:30 a.m. Sunday from a tavern where she worked near the Bay City State Park.

When she left her home shortly thereafter to drive to West Branch, Fraser said her car apparently was forced to the side of a road, where she was hit on the jaw and then carried to another car.

"We think," Fraser said, "he then drove into Midland County, raped and then stabbed her."

He said tracks showed she was dragged 100 feet down an old trail and was dumped into bushes, but managed to stumble later a quarter-mile to an old gravel pit when she collapsed.

After that, authorities said she apparently was able to crawl to the Larkin Township roads where a motorist spotted her and called police.

Anderson was arrested at his Bangor Township home Sunday night. Police quoted patrons at the tavern where Mrs. Grusynski worked as saying he was seen there Saturday night.

House Grapples With Hiking Mortgage Rate

LANSING (AP) — A bill to raise the present 7 per cent ceiling on home mortgage interest rates to 8 1/2 per cent faced the Michigan House today while the Senate grappled with a controversial bill to require disclosure of grand jury probes.

The House meets today at 9:30 a.m., the Senate at 10.

Prompt action to change the mortgage rate provisions of the state's usury law has been viewed as essential to reviving Michigan's sagging construction industry.

Grand Jury

Builders have contended money lenders are looking to other states with higher interest rates for home construction loans or to other areas of investment. The prime rate, available to large businesses with high credit ratings, is 7 1/2 per cent.

The Senate today expected to take final action on a bill requiring judges to submit summaries of grand jury inquiries to the governor.

Under present law, grand jury findings are sealed and not made public.

Sen. James G. Fleming, R-Jackson, originally proposed that grand juries make "a public report of the accomplishments and conclusions of the grand jury."

He amended the bill, however, when opposition to his original proposal appeared to threaten passage, sources said.

Fleming said the amended bill would avoid "smears" and what he called "the very secretive recent grand jury probe of the Michigan Highway Department."

'Peyton Place' Dies Quietly

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — Born noisily, television series are likely to die quietly. "Peyton Place" after five trauma-filled years on ABC, slipped away Monday night without even a farewell.

The wind-up show, as a matter of fact, showed a callous disregard of the faithful viewers. The network and 20th Century-Fox, the studio that turned out more than 500 episodes, could have at least shown the consideration and class of Quinn Martin, producer of the "The Fugitive" and tied up a few loose ends.

Instead, those storm-tossed characters were starting out on a new adventure. Dr. Rossi was about to go on trial for the murder of his fiancée's ex-husband and a young man was about to give himself up on a hit-and-run charge.

Years ago, when CBS's radio network decided suddenly to kill off some long-running soap operas—some in mid-episode—it received such a feshet of anguished letters from listeners that they had to tell them—by mail—how some of the stories worked out. In the case of Helen Trent, who had been proving for years that romance could come into the life of a woman over 40, a form letter to fans revealed that she just up and married the latest romance in her life and went abroad to live happily ever after.

It is highly unlikely either ABC or the studio wants to wrap up the serial for the viewers. Primary interest of the producers now seems to be "Peyton Place's" financial future in reruns.

Budget Advisers Oppose Highway Trust Fund Use

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Transportation John A. Volpe appears having the most trouble of any Cabinet member getting programs past the financial advisers who guard the gates to the White House.

A Volpe aide, however, denies there is any friction between the department and the groups of economists who pour over every program suggested to the President.

"There is a real feeling of rapport," said personal aide Barry Locke.

Despite this, a billion-dollar-a-year mass transit program is the latest proposal to encounter opposition in a chain of events going back at least to a confidential White House memo dated Feb. 17 opposing a policy change favored by the highway lobby.

A Budget Bureau official confirmed Monday the agency had, as expected, objected to the trust fund concept of financing that is the guts of the transit proposal.

The Budget Bureau holds the government purse strings. It virtually speaks for the White House and although it can be overruled it seldom is.

Under the trust fund approach, which has been used for more than a decade in building the nation's highways, funds are committed in advance, bypassing the lengthy and sometimes hazardous annual reviews by Congress.

Some economists oppose the concept because they say it limits its presidential flexibility in budget matters.

Treasury officials also reportedly have stated opposition to the current mass transit proposal, although there were some indications that other presidential advisers may be softening earlier objections.

Two other major transportation programs—an airports and airways construction program and the Supersonic Transport plane—reportedly have been stalled for weeks by an internal debate over financing and need although a break could be near on the 1,800-mile-an-hour airliner.

Headquarters Goes To Selfridge

WASHINGTON (AP) — Second region headquarters of the Army Air Defense Command will be moved to Selfridge Air Force Base by the end of September, the command announced Monday. The offices are being moved from Richards Gebaur Air Force Base near Kansas City, Mo. in order to be more centrally located in the second region, which includes parts of Michigan, Ohio, New York, Wisconsin, Illinois and Minnesota.

City Income Tax

City Manager George Harvey has suggested that the City Council study the possibility of enacting a city income tax for Escanaba.

If approved, the tax would be the first in the Upper Peninsula — unless Marquette, which also is studying an income tax, takes action first — but not the first in Michigan. Detroit has had an income tax for several years and other lower Michigan communities have followed with their own tax ordinances.

The study of an income tax for Escanaba, Harvey emphasizes, is in the preliminary stage so specifics on how much revenue the tax would produce or exactly how it would be implemented have not been prepared, but Michigan law provides a municipality with power to assess a one per cent tax on income of its residents and one half of one per cent on persons who work in the city and live elsewhere.

"Every community that has adopted the income tax needed a new source of revenue," Harvey commented. "Fees and service charges are not enough to satisfy the need for more money. Increased property taxes are not the answer, because in my opinion, it is difficult to base our needs on this particular tax."

The city manager indicated that enactment of a city income tax could result in lower property taxes.

Despite the political problems associated with levying any new form of taxation on the people, Councilmen would be wise to take a hard look at an income tax for Escanaba, particularly if a significant reduction in the property tax could be assured.

Although the millage rate on Escanaba's property tax did not increase until this year when a two mill boost was approved by Council, the dollars paid by residents have been on the rise. Two years ago, the city shifted its assessing practice from assessed valuation to state equalized valuation, producing a substantial boost in taxes without changing the millage. Last year, the State Tax Commission ordered over $2 million in valuation spread over the city, accomplishing another increase in taxation without changing the millage.

The city also tacked a wastewater treatment charge onto utility bills to obtain more revenue.

Council could increase the property tax from its present 16.5 mills to 21 or 22 mills under its charter without a vote of the people, but sentiment has been growing in Escanaba — witness the whole-scale rejection of school millage proposals — and in Michigan that the property tax has been bled to death and is not the best way to finance government and school obligations.

The state legislature, for example, included property tax credits in the state income tax. Senior citizens were granted a $2,500 exemption. And there is presently some discussion in Lansing on proposals to increase the state income tax for school financing with subsequent reductions in the property tax.

The trouble with the property tax as the major source of income for city government, of course, is that it fails to reach all of the people who rely on city services.

While there's considerable truth to the argument that renters pay property taxes through higher rent imposed by owners, this city tax misses, for example, a young man earning a good wage but living with his parents. Residents of areas outside the city who work in Escanaba and use city streets and facilities pay nothing to support city government, except those property owners who add a few cents to the annual appropriation in county tax dollars the city gets from the Board of Supervisors to help finance airport operations.

An income tax would cover both of these situations, plus provide senior citizens with limited incomes a tax break if coupled with a cut in the property tax.

Presently, the question of a city income tax is just in the talking stage. No projections have been made on even how much money an income tax would raise.

As wages for city employees and demands for city services increase, it is becoming apparent that Escanaba is going to need revenues beyond those generated by the growth in the city if it desires to maintain and improve those services.

A city income tax just might be the best solution.

Roberts retired in 1966 after serving NMU for 38 years. The 550-seat theater is part of NMU's Fine and Practical Arts complex completed in 1963.

William Bauman, director of the Silver Echoes Drum & Bugle Corps of Munising, announced that the corps will appear in 20 parades and 10 competitions this summer. The schedule, which will take the unit over 6,000 miles, features appearances in Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin.

A natural waterfall and wildlife refuge shows promise of excellent development this summer in one of the most inaccessible areas of Chippewa County. The new area features a 200-acre lake which was created when the U. S. Forest Service constructed an earthen dam across a shallow creek in the Hiawatha National Forest about seven miles south of Raco. "We have hopes this place may become a wildlife sanctuary for local ducks, herons, cranes and other wildlife for the simple reason it is so isolated," said Richard Ruppenthal, district ranger. The dam was built last summer and this spring forest rangers already have found evidence of large numbers of ducks.

FRUSTRATED DOVE

Developer Of H-Bomb Urges Start On ABM

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Edward Teller, the man who developed the H-bomb despite the opposition of Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer and others who said it couldn't be done, feels so strongly about the need to protect this country with an Anti-Ballistic Missile system that he recently sat by the telephone through a long working day just to talk about it with any editor, editorial writer or columnist who cared to call him up.

There is no nonsense about the Teller approach to the nation's need to look to its own protection. He doesn't claim that there is any sure defense against enemy nuclear attack. "But this," so he continues, "is certainly not the same as saying that there cannot be a defense position against nuclear ICBM's launched against this country." While we are moving toward operational perfection, the proposed ABM would be effective as a protection for our Minute-man "as long as it is capable of intercepting enough of an enemy's incoming missiles to insure that substantial numbers of our retaliatory Minutemen survive."

There is an old adage that the best is the enemy of the good. When Dr. Jerome B. Wiesner and Dr. Abram Chayes, who were commissioned by Senator Edward Kennedy to do an evaluation of the ABM, tell us that there are still some unsolved scientific problems connected with a defense against incoming missiles, they are simply saying that the "best" in anti-missile defense is still some distance away from us. But the way to begin is to begin.

What President Nixon has proposed is to spend $900 million, not a tremendous sum of money, in the next year on a Safeguard deployment that is, as Dr. Teller describes it, a "pilot operation." Says Dr. Teller, "Our industries have learned that research must be followed by pilot plans if one is to build on a realistic basis. So far, $5 billion has been spent on research. It is timely that a pilot operation should follow. Under the President's proposal the situation is to be re-evaluated in one year. If Congress decides to go ahead now we retain some flexibility. If the vote is negative an important avenue of defense will be blocked for a long period."

Dr. Teller insists that the "dialogue" on the ABM has been "dangerously one-sided." The Russians, he says, have already gained precious knowledge through their deployment of an ABM system. What they have learned has encouraged them to go ahead with an ABM defense in depth. More than that, they are now busy testing the more sophisticated art of defending Moscow and other Soviet cities against space weapons. The so-called P-V-O system (the initials stand for the Russian words for anti-air defense) has a subdivision called P-K-O (or defense against space-orbiting missiles and spy satellites). Thus the Soviets remain several jumps ahead of us. While we are busy planning a landing on the moon, the Soviets are already setting up a system designed to neutralize U.S. orbital missiles before we build any. Their P-K-O defense system would also enable them to knock existing U.S. reconnaissance satellites out of the air.

The Soviets carried out tests last autumn which proved the practicability of hitting moving missiles.

From their Tyuratam Space Center, the Russian equivalent of Cape Kennedy, they fired a satellite into orbit on a trajectory that would carry it over the equator. Then they sent two other satellites after it. At 300 miles above the earth there was an explosion. One of the satellites had, according to speculation, put the other two out of business.

The need for a favorable decision on the ABM by the U.S. is particularly urgent, so Dr. Teller says, because "Soviet Russia has caught up with us in offensive power and is rapidly forging ahead. In not more than five years they may have the ability to wipe out our retaliatory force with a sudden 'first strike.' "If this is what Dr. Teller says, we may be sure that it is not moonshine. The man has been magnificent in right in the past, and if we choose to ignore him it will be at our own peril.

Drop Grade Standards For Underprivileged

NEW YORK (AP) — A plan to admit black and Puerto Rican students to City College of New York "without regard to grades" has stirred one of the most emotional educational debates in recent years.

The plan was worked out with student rebels during and after major student violence on the CCNY campus, including one bloody clash between black and white students.

Whatever the outcome of the proposal, the issues seem certain to arise at other schools across the country.

This educational crisis began April 22, when Negro and Puerto Rican students blockaded and seized part of the 20,000-student campus, which lies on the rim of Harlem.

The "Two Track" demonstration supported such demands as a big increase in Negro and Puerto Rican enrollment and the creation of a separate school of black and Puerto Rican studies.

After the violence, after the campus was closed entirely for two weeks, after CCNY President Buel G. Gallagher had resigned charging political interference, with negotiations among faculty, administration and students.

There would be a dual admissions policy, a "two track" system—half the freshman class being admitted under traditional academic standards and the other half coming from slum area high schools, without regard to grades but with regard to potential. "I believe it is a quota system" said Mayor John Lindsay.

Opening lead—six of spades. Whether to win a trick or not is often merely a matter of using good judgment. There is no magic rule to provide you with the right answer. You have to work out each case by itself.

Suppose you're East and partner leads the six of spades against three notrump. You play the jack, which South wins with the king. Declarer returns with the three, and West following with the three, and the question is whether or not to win this trick.

Many contracts stand or fall on problems of this type, and it pays to be extremely careful when you are faced with such a situation. West's play of the three shows an odd number of hearts — with an even number of hearts, he would play high-low — so you know that West has three hearts and South two.

You might therefore feel tempted to duck the king, planning to take the ace the next time. But if you succumbed to this temptation, you would have a lot of explaining to do to partner at the end of the hand after declarer now switched his attack from hearts to diamonds. South would come home with nine tricks consisting of two spades, a heart, four diamonds and two clubs.

Ducking the king of hearts is a futile play, since you know declarer can force out your ace if he wants to, or abandon the suit if he thinks it is in his best interest to do so. You should not give declarer this option—it can do you no good and may do you some harm.

You should win the king of hearts and return a spade, hoping partner started with five spades, in which case you have an excellent chance of beating the contract. As it happens, if you grab the heart, South must eventually go down one.

A Meter Reader's Life Can Be Hectic

Dear Ann Landers: You've said a good word for waiters, maids, bellboys, police officers, airline pilots and garage mechanics. Now will you give a hand to the most abused men in America—the meter readers. My son Elmer has been a meter reader for two years. He has been harassed, cussed out, kicked, bitten and mugged. A few weeks ago a husband came home unexpectedly, saw Elmer in the basement and mistook him for his wife's lover. Elmer was lucky to get out with his life.

People put all sorts of things over their meters so the reader can't get to them — heavy trash cans, garden implements and lawn furniture. They park their cars on top of the meter and refuse to move them. The reader has to estimate the amount of the bill when he can't get a reading. The people complain their heads off when the bills come and then they write dirty letters to the management saying the meter-reader is off his nut.

Please say something in your column to give these poor guys a lift. They sure deserve it.—A Richmond Mom

Dear Mom: I did my bit for meter readers a few years back when I printed a letter from a housewife who liked to do her housework in the nude. It seems she was in the basement doing her laundry and decided to take off her house dress and throw it in the washing machine. The woman suddenly noticed the pipes overhead were dripping, so she put on her son's football helmet which was lying in the corner. There she stood, naked as the day she was born, when she heard a small cough. The woman turned around and stared straight into the face of the meter reader. He looked completely bewildered and all he could say was, "I hope your team wins, Lady."

After that letter appeared in the column I had dozens of letters from mothers who said their sons had decided on a career. They wanted to be meter readers.

Dear Ann Landers: I was interested in the letter from the man whose wife died. He pointed out that many widowers are left helpless — they don't know how to boil an egg or sew on a button. He said, "Wives would be doing their husbands a big favor if they stopped waiting on them hand and foot and taught them how to do things for themselves."

It is my opinion that the teaching should be done by mothers, not wives. My mother saw to it that all of us kids washed dishes, cooked, cleaned house and ironed our own clothes—the boys as well as the girls. I hated it at the time and so did my brother, but when we went to college we were thankful.

Shortly after I married, my wife had an emergency call to fly to the Coast. She left knowing I'd manage O. K. And I did. I cooked for myself and even did my own shirts.

So tell the moms out there that their sons may yell a lot when they are forced to do housework chores, but in time they will rise and call her blessed.—One Who Did

Dear Dad: Thanks for the assist. And now, Mom, don't hand this column to your teenage son, but put it where he's likely to see it. (Like in the refrigerator.)

MANISTIQUE

Name Advisory Group For Training Program

A four-member advisory committee for the new Cooperative Occupational Training Program has been named. The program is expected to become operational next September with at least 40 students from the Manistique High School involved, according to Miss Helen Jean Voisine, director.

Named to the committee are William H. Griffith, J. C. Penney Company manager; Fred H. Hahne, president of the first National Bank; Mrs. Donald Ott, assistant secretary-treasurer, Manistique Pulp and Paper Co.; and Clarence O. Peterson, People's Store manager.

Griffith was involved in a similar program in Oshkosh, Wis. for three years while Peterson worked with cooperative training programs in Minneapolis.

The program will provide on-the-job training for senior high students in the fields of office and distributive (retail) education. Letters are being sent to area businessmen asking their participation in the venture.

The advisory group will hold its first meeting later this month.

Miss Voisine said that 80 junior students have been interviewed and she is hopeful of securing training stations for 42 of them by next fall. She will be working on placements during the summer.

Students will receive one credit for a class session at the school, and another credit for their work-experience. To meet state minimum standards, the students must work at least 15 hours a week. Businessmen hiring the students must pay the prevailing minimum wage.

Miss Voisine will attend the Cooperative Vocational Education Conference at Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, June 15-17.

Cabins, Home Broken Into

Several breaking and enterings are under investigation by troopers of the Manistique State Police Post.

Reported in the past few days is the entering of a cabin owned by Louis Robinet of North Branch, Mich. which is located on County Road 436, Doyle Township. Entry was gained by forcing a door.

The home of George Gouin, Rte. 3, Rapid River, was entered sometime in the past month while he was absent from the area. No articles were reported missing from the home which is located south of Isabella on old US-2.

A quantity of lumber, an electric motor and several smaller items are reported missing from a barn owned by Frank Schwartz Jr. on M-94, north of Dodge Lake.

The concession stand at the U. S. 2 Drive-In was entered during the nighttime of May 24, troopers said. Several concession items are reported missing by owner J. L. LeDuc. Entry was gained by forcing a door.

Mrs. Laura Avery reported the attempted entry of her cabin on County Road 483, Garden Township. Some exterior damage was reported.

Michael D. Goldi of Manistique reported that $300 was stolen from him while he was working aboard the ore carrier John T. Boland.

State police are also investigating the malicious destruction of some outside map holders and a mailbox at the Seney Wildlife Refuge. The destruction was reported on May 30.

Committee OKs Burger

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Judiciary Committee unanimously approved today President Nixon's nomination of Warren E. Burger to become chief justice of the United States.

Swift approval came after a one hour and 45 minute committee hearing devoted in a large measure to senatorial praise of the man Nixon chose to succeed the retiring Earl Warren.

Once that session was over it took the committee little more than five minutes to endorse Burger. Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., said there was no dissent.

Blame Stock Decline On War, Tight Money

NEW YORK (AP) — The tight money situation is being paired with the lack of progress in the Vietnam peace talks as the major causes of the stock market's recent decline.

Analysts said today that investors backed away from stocks last week partly because of expectations that commercial banks would increase their prime rate—the interest charged their biggest and most creditworthy borrowers—from the already record 7 1/2 per cent.

"The money situation is not conducive to a strong stock market," says United Business Service in its weekly investment and business report. "Nor is the current situation in Vietnam very cheering."

"A plunge in bond prices gave the stock market a slight case of jitters last week. Bond market conditions were described in some circles as about the most disorderly in memory."

Standard & Poor's Corp. said the new credit squeeze, which brought the yield on a new Arated utility issue above 8 per cent, arose from expectations that the prime bank lending rate would go to 8 per cent or even 8 1/2 per cent. It added that this would likely be followed by an increase in the discount rate—the interest charged by the Federal Reserve System on loans to its member banks.

"The worst of the money crisis may be with us now," said Standard & Poor's. "At any rate an easing of demand for credit or a policy change by the Federal Reserve to supply additional funds has ended such conditions historically in a relatively short period of time."

Mother Shoots Sons, Herself

PONTIAC (AP) — A 13-year-old boy was shot to death and his brother and mother wounded Sunday night. Suburban Waterford Township police reported the mother apparently shot her sons and then attempted to take her own life.

Mrs. Betty Keyton of Waterford Township was held a police prisoner without charge at Pontiac General Hospital, where she is reported in intensive care and fair condition.

Her son, Jeffery, was killed and his 16-year-old brother, John, shot. John also is in Pontiac General with what police described as multiple wounds and fair condition.

Police said today they have been unable to uncover a motive or other details of the 7:30 p.m. Sunday incident.

Waldron Blasts Demo Leaders

LANSING (AP) — House Minority Leader Robert Waldron has changed majority Democrats with responsibility "for the chaos in the House."

But, said the Grosse Pointe Republican, he's not seeking the speakership and not encouraging other minority legislators to try.

Waldron was speaker until the GOP lost House control in last November's elections.

Waldron made his comments after revelation of dissatisfaction in Democratic ranks with the leadership of Majority Floor Leader George F. Montgomery, D-Detroit.

There was speculation that dissident Democrats might try to remove Montgomery from his No. 2 position and also try to topple House Speaker William A. Ryan, D-Detroit.

Democrats hold a four-man majority in the lower chamber — versus a two-vote Republican supremacy in the Senate — but frequently have failed to act in unison.

Civil rights, race relations and social welfare policies frequently have split Democrats into splintered interest groups.

Legislators and observers of the lower chamber have speculated that several conservative Democrats might decide to vote with Republicans in an effort to wrest control.

That drastic shift of alliance, Waldron said, would be the only event to lead him to seek to be speaker.

"I see little danger of this happening," he added.

Lift Sanction At Riverview

DETROIT (AP) — The Michigan Education Association (MEA) Monday formally agreed to lift its sanctions against the Riverview school district.

The MEA will send out letters to education associations and teachers throughout the Midwest advising prospective teachers that the sanctions have been lifted and the downriver community's schools are approved for work.

The sanctions were invoked March 14 after an MEA investigation was made at the request of the Riverview Education Association an affiliate of the MEA. The study said the schools were unfit to work in because there was no full-time superintendent, the teachers were working without a contract and communication had broken down with the board of education.

Students Have Saved Extracurriculars

MIDLAND (AP) — Calling it one of the "brightest days in Midland's entire history," Mayor Julian Blasy Monday announced that a fund-raising drive to retain extracurricular activities in Midland schools has surpassed its goal.

The campaign, sparked by students and joined by a large number of adults, raised $113,554. Blasy told a victory luncheon.

"We knew we had a good bunch of kids in this town," Blasy said, "but now we know they're great."

The fund drive was launched in March after Midland voters rejected a tax increase which school officials said would have permitted the public schools to continue athletic programs and other extracurricular activities.

Almost 3,000 students joined the campaign, hoping to raise at least $100,000 through door-to-door solicitations of donations and pledges, car washes and other work projects and by selling tickets to athletic events, plays and concerts.

David Byers, student council president at Midland High School, said the youngsters freely put in their time and effort because, "We know how much extracurricular activities have meant to us."

Byers said that more than $67,000 of the total came from donations and pledges, with more than $39,000 from ticket sales.

Blasy told the fund-raisers, however, "I don't want to have to come back next year to do this all over again."

Indicating he thought extracurricular activities should be supported through taxes, he said, "We're going to recommend to the school board the inclusion of another committee to aid in their study of the next millage election."

Their teachers are understandably proud of the students. "There's a group that is really concerned about what's going to happen next year, particularly if we don't have athletics," says Midland High principal William Wang.

"We're really proud of them," adds Mahlen Moore, assistant superintendent of the city's schools. "These kids — most of the students in the city all the way from grade 7 to 12 — took it upon themselves to raise money to replace what they might have been denied."

Vietnam Deaths Number 265

SAIGON (AP) — The total number of Americans killed in action in Vietnam last week was about the same as the week before, allied sources reported today, but South Vietnamese and enemy totals dropped sharply.

The sources, reporting in advance of the official summary to be issued Thursday, said the combat death toll was between 250 and 300 U. S. troops, 231 South Vietnamese and at least 2,637 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong.

The official figures for the week before May 18-24, were 265 Americans, 413 South Vietnamese troops, and 3,968 of the enemy. American battlefield deaths from Jan. 1 through May 24 totaled 5,009, or an average of 238 a week.

If this rate continues, the total number of Americans killed in the Vietnam war will pass 40,000 by early October. The total May 24 was 35,530.

"I spend $350,000 in philanthropies each year, taxes cost $250,000, political gifts average out $100,000 and personal income is $50,000," he said. "The rest, I suppose, is reinvested."

The senior Mott, asked by a reporter if he were retired, snorted, "who the hell says I am retired?"

Arrest Robbers

DETROIT (AP) — Three teen-aged would-be robbers were arrested on Detroit's West Side Monday after a bartender tripped a hidden police alarm. Police entered to make the arrest as the trio was tying up the customers.

Lake Erie Pollution Control To Be Costly

TORONTO (AP) — Nutrient pollution in Lake Erie will cost about $1,400,000,000 to eradicate from the U.S. side of Lake Erie alone, a pollution expert said Monday night.

James H. Bruce, acting director of the Canada Center of Inland Waters, said more than half the pollution is the result of phosphates discharged in municipal wastes.

He told the annual meeting of the Lakefront Homeowners Association that the "main question to ask ourselves is how much is it worth to us to pass on to the next generation lakes in at least as good a condition as we found them?"

Nutrient pollution kills by overfertilization of plant life, he said. He added that this encourages excess algae, which depletes the oxygen supply, killing the fish. Then, he said, the algae decays and settles to the bottom, covering the spawning grounds.

The attack on pollution is hampered by jurisdictional tangles, Bruce said.

He called for "some better mechanism than presently exists to control and coordinate activities."

The center, established by the Department of Energy, Mines and Resources in 1967, has a budget of $3,000,000 and a staff of 150.

Strikes Hamper Car Production

DETROIT (AP) — With General Motors Corp. hampered much of the month by strikes, U. S. automakers turned out 202,740 fewer cars last month than in May of 1968.

Strike-plagued GM accounted for 163,982 of the loss, but Ford Motor Co. was down by 24,232; Chrysler Corp. off 12,284, and American Motors off 2,242.

And only American Motors is ahead for the year through the first five months, up 4,760 over January-May production of 1968.

Ford's production for the first five months was down 237,722, GM's off 8,093 and Chrysler's off 63,605.

Ford's U.S. May total included 13,680 of its new Mavericks, which also are built at St. Thomas, Ont., for the American market.

Chrysler reported that 10,764 units were built in the United States in May for sale in Canada and 14,193 turned out in Canada for sale in the United States.

Two Men Win School Posts

Incumbent members of the Delta-Schoolcraft Intermediate School District Board of Education, Harry Johnson of Flat Rock and Walter VanDeWeghe of Kipling, were elected to six-year terms on the board by representatives of the district's constituent school districts Monday night.

Johnson and VanDeWeghe defeated George Peterson, 217 S. 23rd St., for the two terms on the board.

Johnson and VanDeWeghe each received six votes. Peterson received three votes.

Each school district in the two counties has one vote in the election. Rapid River and Escanaba Township districts were not represented at the meeting and did not vote.

Court Delays Sentencings On Two Youths

Two Rapid River youths were given one-year delayed sentences in Circuit Court Monday. They previously had entered pleas of guilty to charges of breaking and entering.

The probation department recommended delayed sentences for Charles E. Dillon, 17, and Michael D. Beeck, 18. Both youths had no previous criminal record.

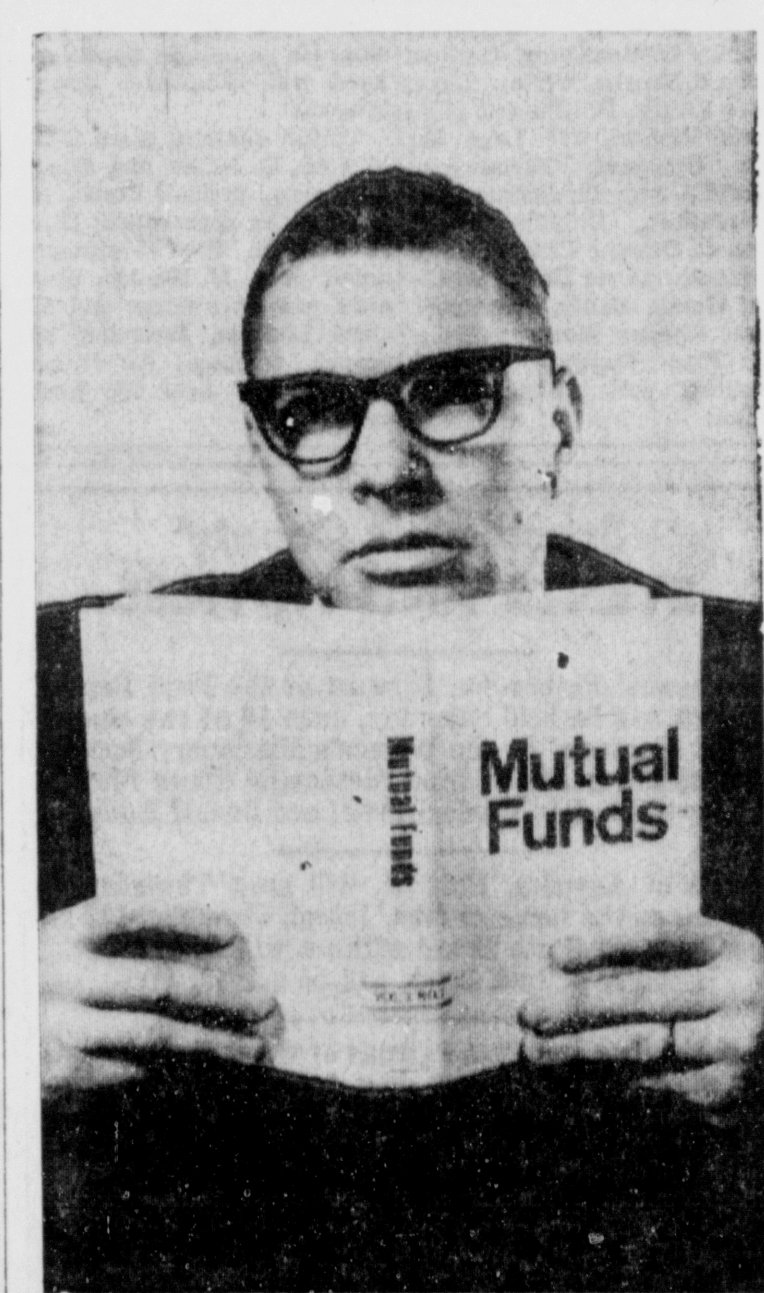

If the youths remain out of trouble during the next year, the original charge will be dismissed and their records cleared, the court indicated.

Computer Fails To Find Answer For Grid Owners

NEW YORK (AP) — "If the computer has anything to say about it, sorting the 13 remaining teams in the National Football League into three divisions that will suit everyone will take years—five years and 17 days to be exact."

Pro football Commissioner Pete Rozelle disclosed after another fruitless meeting with club owners Monday that just for fun he had referred the whole matter to an electronic brain. The computer didn't say which teams would go into the three divisions but it did say there were 90,000 possible combinations. "The computer said that if we worked on each plan for 15 minutes round the clock, it would take five years and 17 days to consider each proposal," Rozelle said.

So far, Rozelle and the owners have huddled for 26 hours on how to come up with the three new divisions, two with four teams and one with five.

That log doesn't count the winter meetings at Palm Springs, Calif., where the whole thing was first discussed. It does include a 22-hour marathon session held two weeks ago.

The three divisions would comprise the National Conference. The American Conference is set, with Baltimore, Cleveland and Pittsburgh from the NFL having joined the 10 American Football League clubs. The realignment will take effect in 1970, the completion date for the merger of the two leagues.

The matter no doubt will be settled by then, but Rozelle held out only a 50-50 chance that it will be solved in time for the spring meetings starting Wednesday which involve both leagues. But Rozelle and the owners intend to try.

They met at 10 a.m. today and planned to break in time for the Pro Football Writer Dinner tonight.

"There was no indication Monday that the owners will suddenly arrive at a decision," he said. "If a decision isn't reached we'll just have to meet again seven weeks from now."

The newest plan described as plan 109 A, would put Los Angeles, San Francisco, St. Louis and Philadelphia in one division, Chicago, Detroit, Green Bay, Atlanta and New Orleans in another, and New York, Washington, Dallas and Minnesota in the third.

That plan was said to have drawn an 11-2 vote.

The reason why there's been no unanimous vote is that all the teams want to play in the largest parks with the best climates and still maintain traditional rivalries.

For instance, New York, Washington and Philadelphia want to stay together. So do Chicago and Green Bay. St. Louis would like to be in the Eastern Division with New York and Washington. The Central Division wants Dallas but Dallas wants the East.

Clancy met with Leafs' president Stafford Smythe Monday and agreed to accept the position of vice-president.

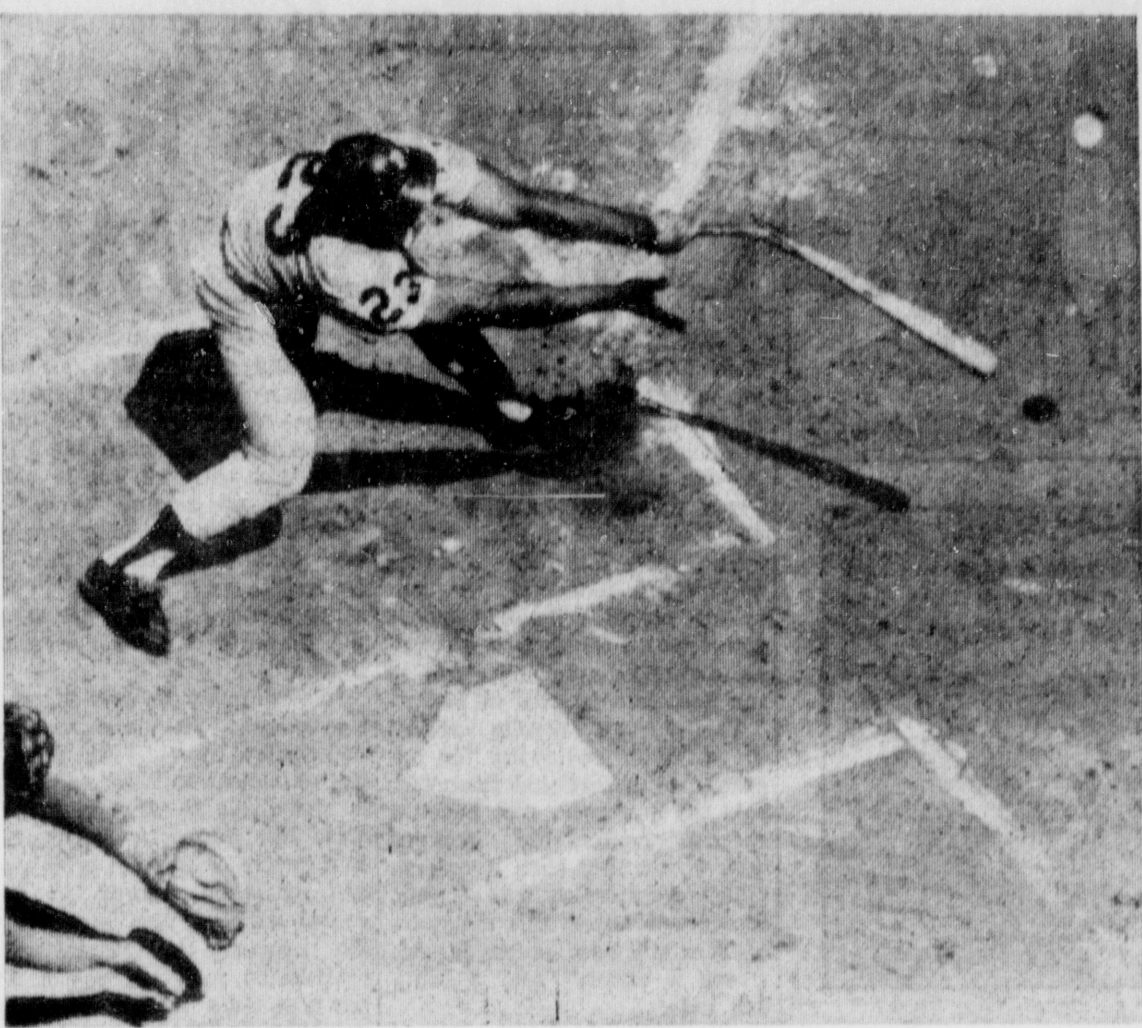

Clancy previously was assistant general manager-coach under George "Punch" Imlach, who was fired in April after the Leafs were eliminated from the Stanley Cup playoffs.

Managers receiving letters were Cliff DeSalvo, Dave Walker and Gus Delforge.

Six new school records were established this season. Lasnoski set a new standard in the 180-yard low hurdles (curve) with a time of 20.8; Bob McGinn erased the old record in the 880-yard run with a time of 2:05.3; Tom Creten established a new mark in the 440-yard dash with a time of 1:34; Guenette broke his own mark in the two mile run when he covered the distance in 10:16.8; Gannon broke the mile mark he set at different times during the year with a time of 4:49.5 and the 880 yard team of Ness, Dubord, Creten and Lasnoski set a new record in their specialty with a 1:35.3 clocking.

Holy Name finished in second place in the Great Northern Conference and the U. P. Finals, third in the regional meet and first in the recent Tournament of Champions meet at Newberry.

The shot putters were the big point getters for the Crusaders this season, scoring 83 points while the 220-yard dashmen were second with 79 points. Class wise the juniors scored 258½ points, sophomores 218½, seniors 211 and freshmen 57. Dubord was the top scorer with 121½ points while Lasnoski was three runnerup with 103.

Cepeda Has Happy Return As Braves Tip Cardinals

By The Associated Press
Orlando Cepeda came home to St. Louis Monday night and came home ... and came home ... and came home ...

And when Atlanta's slugging first baseman was through touching home plate for the evening the Braves had ended a four-game losing streak by trimming Cepeda's once-beloved El Birdos, the Cardinals, 6-3.

Cepeda tripled and scored in the second inning, cracked his 10th home run in the fourth and walked and scored again in the fifth in his first St. Louis appearance since he was traded for Joe Torre during spring training. Torre was hitless in three at-bats, once popping up with two men on base.

Elsewhere in the National League, the New York Mets nipped Los Angeles 2-1 and San Diego shaded Philadelphia 6-4. The San Francisco-Montreal and Cincinnati-Pittsburgh games were washed out while the Chicago Cubs and Houston were not scheduled.

Cepeda agreed that it was a "fine homecoming" after helping send the Cards to their 17th home setback in 23 games. And then he came up with a line which St. Louis fans who cheered many of his 61 homers and 257 runs batted in over the past three seasons may find hard to believe.

"I don't like hitting here," he said of Busch Stadium. "This is a tough ball park. I never hit too good in this ball park."

Most parks look alike to Henry Aaron, though, and the Braves' right fielder capped the night's scoring with an eighth-inning homer, his 12th of the season and 522nd of his career. It pushed him past Ted Williams into fifth place on the all-time homer list.

Atlanta's 10-hit attack, which included four singles by Sonny Jackson, helped unbeaten George Stone record his sixth victory. He needed relief help from Cecil Upshaw, who worked the last three innings.

Jerry Koosman tripped a five-hitter as the Mets hurled the Dodgers and reached the .500 mark once again with their fifth consecutive triumph. Jerry Grote's wind-blown pop fly brought home the first run in the fourth and Al Weis followed with a run-scoring double.

Koosman, 2-3, was tagged for a home run by Bill Russell in the eighth and pitched out of deep trouble in the ninth. Wes Parker led off with a double and continued to third on a throwing error. But Koosman retired Andy Kosco and Bill Sudakis on infield pops and Jim Lefebvre flied to deep left.

The expansion San Diego Padres used Nate Colbert's two-run homer and Tommy Dean's two-run double to beat Philadelphia for their fourth straight win, a team record. A four-run sixth wrapped it up.

Hits—M. Alou, Pittsburgh 72; B. Williams, Chicago 63.

Doubles—M. Alou, Pittsburgh 17; H. Aaron, Atlanta 17.

Triples—R. Jackson, Atlanta 5; Tolan, Cincinnati 5.

Home runs—McCovey, San Francisco 16; L. May, Cincinnati 15.

Stolen bases—Brock, St. Louis 22; Morgan, Houston 14.

Pitching (4 decisions)—Abernathy, Chicago 4-0, 1,000; Stone, Atlanta 6-0, 1,000; Baldschun, San Diego 5-0, 1,000.

Strikeouts—Singer, Los Angeles 82; Gibson, St. Louis 80.

Insurance will play Kiwanis in a practice game tonight at the Al Ness Field beginning at 6 p. m.

STARR IS RETURNING
GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Quarterback Bart Starr of the Green Bay Packers is going to give pro football one last whirl next season.

"A year ago we came off with our second Super Bowl victory and we were on the top of the world, and I did think of retiring," says Starr. "But after the disappointing season of last year my prime thought now is coming back to play one more time."

Hogan, a good-field first baseman-outfielder who batted .136 for the Yankees in his only previous full season in the majors, drove in three runs with his fifth and sixth homers as the Pilots battered Cleveland. He hit one home run in 86 games with New York.

The 26-year-old son of Jim Hegan, a former All-Star catcher for Cleveland, also drew a walk in Seattle's three-run first inning flurry and singled in the seventh for a perfect night at the plate.

Steve Whitaker drove in two more Seattle runs with a homer and bunt single. Winning pitcher Steve Barber and reliever Jim Bouton scattered six hits, including Ken Harrelson's fifth homer.

Killebrew socked his 408th career homer in the fifth inning, erasing a 2-1 New York lead built on Bobby Cox' third inning homer and taking 15th place in the all-time HR list—one ahead of Duke Snider.

Southpaw Jim Kaat went the distance for the Twins, yielding six hits and bringing his season mark to 5-3.

Bernie Allen's bases-loaded triple in the third inning brought the Senators from behind to a 5-4 edge and they went on to hand Kansas City its sixth successive setback.

Frank Howard stroked two singles and a triple and scored three Washington runs. Juan Rios had three hits, including his first major league homer, for the Royals.

Angels Top Tigers; McLain Takes Loss

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP)—The Angels bedeviled the Tigers with a rookie manager, a rookie slugger and two rookie pitchers Monday night for a 3-1 decision over Detroit.

Most bedeviled of all was Tiger ace Denny McLain, who lasted just six innings in his unsuccessful quest for victory No. 9 of 1969 and his ninth straight win over the Californians since 1967.

McLain took his fifth loss, a figure he didn't reach last year until Aug. 24.

Rookie Manager Lefty Phillips, in the driver's seat only a week, let rookie pitcher Tom Murphy go 7 2-3 innings as the Angels pushed the Tigers 7½ games behind East Division leader Baltimore, then jerked him abruptly when the Bengals snarled briefly.

The snarl came in the form of Tom Matchick's two-out eighth inning double, but the Tigers' threat was ended by rookie reliever Rudy May, who finished the game by getting four straight Tigers on two grounders and two flies.

A three-run third was all the Californians needed, as rookie centerfielder Jay Johnstone crashed a one out triple with two men on base, then came home on a sacrifice fly by shortstop Jim Fregoso.

The only real Tiger threat came in the first inning, when Dick McAuliffe worked Murphy, now 4-2, for a leadoff walk, then advanced to third on two infield outs.

Norm Cash followed with a bloop single bringing the Tiger second baseman home, and the best Detroit could do after that was put two men aboard in the second. After the second, Matchick was the only Detroit to get as far as second base.

Phillips, a disciple of Los Angeles Dodger manager Walter Alton, leader of the pull-your-pitcher-quick school, wasted no time getting Murphy out of the game when Matchick touched him for the two-bagger.

"For years we were successful doing it over at the other place," Phillips said, referring to his experience as a Dodger coach.

"Right now we have a good bullpen and there's no reason it shouldn't be successful here. In a couple of years these pitchers can be as good as we had over there."

One of the young pitchers Phillips is counting on, rookie Andy Messersmith (0-5), will be on the hill for the Angels tonight against Tiger John Hiller (1-1) as the Detroiters seek to even the three-game series at 1-1.

Crusaders Get Track Awards

Head track coach Doug Bovin has honored 22 Holy Name Crusader trackmen with letters for their performances this past season.

Included on the list were five seniors, Tom Creten, Joe Gasperich, Joe Lasnoski, Dan Patrick and Dale Wiecech; seven juniors, Gary Corbett, Bill Beauvais, Paul Guenette, Nick Knauf, Bob McGinn, Dennis Severinsen and Dan Young; sophomores, Don DeGrand, Jim Dubord, Joe Kroll, Steve Leonard and Tom Ness; and freshmen Noel Gannon and Bill Skradski.

Managers receiving letters were Cliff DeSalvo, Dave Walker and Gus Delforge.

Six new school records were established this season. Lasnoski set a new standard in the 180-yard low hurdles (curve) with a time of 20.8; Bob McGinn erased the old record in the 880-yard run with a time of 2:05.3; Tom Creten established a new mark in the 440-yard dash with a time of 1:34; Guenette broke his own mark in the two mile run when he covered the distance in 10:16.8; Gannon broke the mile mark he set at different times during the year with a time of 4:49.5 and the 880 yard team of Ness, Dubord, Creten and Lasnoski set a new record in their specialty with a 1:35.3 clocking.

Holy Name finished in second place in the Great Northern Conference and the U. P. Finals, third in the regional meet and first in the recent Tournament of Champions meet at Newberry.

The shot putters were the big point getters for the Crusaders this season, scoring 83 points while the 220-yard dashmen were second with 79 points. Class wise the juniors scored 258½ points, sophomores 218½, seniors 211 and freshmen 57. Dubord was the top scorer with 121½ points while Lasnoski was three runnerup with 103.

Clancy To Stay With Maple Leafs

TORONTO (AP) — King Clancy, who has been connected with professional hockey as a player, referee, coach and executive for nearly 50 years, will remain with the Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League.

Clancy met with Leafs' president Stafford Smythe Monday and agreed to accept the position of vice-president.

Clancy previously was assistant general manager-coach under George "Punch" Imlach, who was fired in April after the Leafs were eliminated from the Stanley Cup playoffs.

Managers receiving letters were Cliff DeSalvo, Dave Walker and Gus Delforge.

Palmer Seeking Berth In U.S. Open Tourney

By The Associated Press
Jesse Snead, Ken Sull and Larry Hinson made it. Gardner Dickinson, Jack Fleck, and Doug Sanders didn't, and Arnold Palmer still was a question mark as golfers across the nation completed sectional qualifying rounds today for the U.S. Open Golf Tournament.

Snead, Still and Hinson, a rapidly improving trio on the PGA tour, were among the 29 players who qualified for a tarting berth in the championship June 12-15 at the Champions Golf Club in Houston.

Dickinson, winner of the Colonial Invitational in Texas last month, was one of 42 disappointed players who failed to score 142 or better for 36 holes over the par 70 Colonial Country Club course, the site of last week's Memphis Open.

Fleck, the unheralded pro who in 1955 beat Ben Hogan in a playoff and won the Open Championship, failed to qualify at Los Angeles and the sartorial Sanders lost out with 146 at Dallas.

Although Palmer won the Open Championship in 1960, he still must survive the sectional qualifying this year because he does not meet the U.S. Golf Association's qualifications for exemption. He was exempt from local qualifying, however.

Palmer and 51 other players shoot for eight places at the Youghiogheny Country Club near Pittsburgh.

Veteran Lionel Hebert and Bob Duden, an obscure Portland, Ore., pro, each fired 136 Monday to lead the field of 53 players who qualified out of 236 hopefuls at six sites.

In today's qualifying, 385 players shot for 64 places in eight states. The 117 survivors of the sectional qualifying join 33 exempt players to comprise the startfield of 150 for the championship.

Hebert, the 1957 PGA champion, shot 67-69 at Memphis and Duden fired 68-68 over the par 70 Broadmoor Golf Club in Seattle.

John Schlee posted 68-69-137 to lead the field of 64 seeking nine berths at Dallas and Dick Ryan's 71-70-141 was best at Cincinnati where 42 players sought five places.

Veteran Dow Finsterwald fired 71-70-141 at Denver where 22 players shot for three berths and Jerry Steelsmith's 71-71-142 topped the field of 39 at Los Angeles where five places were up for grabs.

The field of 33 seeking five spots in Detroit included Mike Souchak while 1968 Masters champion Bob Goalby headed a field of 37 players after five places in St. Louis. Ed Furgol, Doug Ford and Tom Newport were among the field of 97 seeking 12 places at two courses in New York's Westchester County.

May's Home Run Wins For Chisox

By The Associated Press
There's nothing half-baked about Chicago's Sweetroll Kid. Before long, he might be the hottest biscuit in baseball's swinging May family.

Carlos "Sweetroll" May, whose older brother, Lee, hits home runs for Cincinnati, poled the first grand slam homer of his brief major league career Monday night, climaxing a six-run eighth inning rally that thrust the Chicago White Sox past Boston 6-4.

The homer, 11th of the season for the Chicago rookie, gave him 29 RBI in 38 games and boosted his batting average to .307—fifth best in the American League.

Brother Lee has hit 15 homers and knocked in 35 runs for the Reds in four more games, but his average is 23 points lower.

"Carlos is going to be an even better hitter than his brother," says Luis Aparicio, the White Sox' veteran shortstop. "Lee is good. I know he hit .290 last season with 22 homers and 80 RBI. I looked it up."

"But Carlos has a better swing. In maybe two years he'll pass Lee."

Seattle's Mike Hegan cracked two homers and a single to move into the No. 6 spot in the AL batting derby with a .304 mark as the Pilots slammed Cleveland 8-2. California beat Denny McLain and the Detroit Tigers 3-1; Minnesota nipped the New York Yankees 3-2 on Harmon Killebrew's three-run homer, and Washington nipped Kansas City 7-6.

Hogan, a good-field first baseman-outfielder who batted .136 for the Yankees in his only previous full season in the majors, drove in three runs with his fifth and sixth homers as the Pilots battered Cleveland. He hit one home run in 86 games with New York.

The 26-year-old son of Jim Hegan, a former All-Star catcher for Cleveland, also drew a walk in Seattle's three-run first inning flurry and singled in the seventh for a perfect night at the plate.

Steve Whitaker drove in two more Seattle runs with a homer and bunt single. Winning pitcher Steve Barber and reliever Jim Bouton scattered six hits, including Ken Harrelson's fifth homer.

Killebrew socked his 408th career homer in the fifth inning, erasing a 2-1 New York lead built on Bobby Cox' third inning homer and taking 15th place in the all-time HR list—one ahead of Duke Snider.

Southpaw Jim Kaat went the distance for the Twins, yielding six hits and bringing his season mark to 5-3.

Bernie Allen's bases-loaded triple in the third inning brought the Senators from behind to a 5-4 edge and they went on to hand Kansas City its sixth successive setback.

Frank Howard stroked two singles and a triple and scored three Washington runs. Juan Rios had three hits, including his first major league homer, for the Royals.

STARR IS RETURNING
GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—Quarterback Bart Starr of the Green Bay Packers is going to give pro football one last whirl next season.

"A year ago we came off with our second Super Bowl victory and we were on the top of the world, and I did think of retiring," says Starr. "But after the disappointing season of last year my prime thought now is coming back to play one more time."

Hogan, a good-field first baseman-outfielder who batted .136 for the Yankees in his only previous full season in the majors, drove in three runs with his fifth and sixth homers as the Pilots battered Cleveland. He hit one home run in 86 games with New York.

Study Supports Jet-Age Airport For Downstate

GALESBURG (AP) — A $20.5 million, jet - age airport was recommended today to serve southwestern Michigan in a report on a 16-month study of the region's needs.

The proposed 3,875 - acre airport, capable of being expanded to meet the needs of 1990, would be located at Climax, just south of 194 and about midway between Battle Creek and Kalamazoo.

Ralph H. Burke Associates of Chicago, which made the independent study, said the new airport could be opened in 1973 and that it would require $40 million to provide similar facilities and services through expansion of separate airfields now serving Battle Creek and Kalamazoo.

If Battle Creek's and Kalamazoo's airports were converted at the higher cost to serve jet-age traffic, the study showed traffic would be divided between them and existing annual deficits would grow.

Travel Time

The study was conducted for Southwest Air Inc., a nonprofit organization of Calhoun and Kalamazoo County citizens, recognized by boards of supervisors of the two counties and city commissions of both Battle Creek and Kalamazoo.

The report was made to some 200 citizens at a breakfast meeting in Galesburg, just north of the proposed jetport site, by John L. Donoghue, president of Ralph H. Burke Associates of Chicago.

State Issues Highway Grants

LANSING (AP) — Michigan has been allocated some $7 million in federal aid for county secondary roads in the coming fiscal year. Highway department figures show the state received some $1.5 million less during the fiscal year ending June 30.

U. P. county shares of the $6.91 million, based on area, population and road mileage, are:

Alger, $52,297; Baraga, $51,338; Chippewa, $106,746; Delta, $80,350; Dickinson, $52,538; Gogebic, $66,975; Houghton, $76,737; Iron, $69,778; Keweenaw, $27,281; Lake, $48,951; Mackinac, $62,380; Marquette, $124,288; Menominee, $81,300; Ontonagon, $71,762 and Schoolcraft, $62,464.

August To Tell Algiers Story

MASON, Mich. (AP) — A suspended white policeman accused of murdering a Negro youth during Detroit's 1967 riot takes the witness stand today to describe in his own words how and why he killed the youth.

The defendant, Ronald August, 31, is charged with first - degree murder in the death of 19 - year - old Aubrey Pollard, one of three black teenagers slain at the Algiers Motel on the night of July 26, 1967.

August admits killing Pollard but claims it was self-defense in a struggle over a shotgun.

Prosecution witnesses have told how police and national guardsmen raided the motel in a search for reported snipers, forced several Negro men and two white girls to stand against a wall and then beat them in an attempt to get information.

Investigations later found the bodies of Pollard, Fred Temple, 18, and Carl Cooper, 17. All had been killed by close-range shotgun blasts.

As the trial entered its fourth week Monday, the defense lost a motion for a directed verdict of acquittal but won a fight to allow the all - white jury to view television news film of the riot.

Circuit Judge William Beer denied the acquittal motion, observing that testimony by some 40 prosecution witnesses — although sometimes conflicting — had established an issue for determination by the jury of 13 women and one man.

Before ruling on the admissibility of the color TV film, Judge Beer sat in the empty jury box and viewed the 20-minute movie.

The film and sound track depicted scenes of buildings ablaze, troops patrolling the streets with fixed bayonets, heavy gunfire on a darkened street, and hospital attendants striving futilely to save the life of a riot victim.

Weissauer protested vigorously against the film to be viewed by the jury, arguing that it was immaterial and irrelevant to the murder charge against August.

The prosecutor asserted that the film was of a highly inflammatory nature and was an appeal to bias, prejudice and bigotry.
